CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers asks unanimous consent to print amendments to LB 464 in the Legislative Journal.

SENATOR BURBACH: Unanimous consent has been requested to print amendments to 464 in the Journal. If there any opposition? So ordered.

CLERK: Now, Mr. President, he also asks unanimous consent to print a newspaper article in the Journal.

SENATOR BURBACH: Would you repeat this, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: The request we have, Mr. President, is to attach a Omaha World Herald news article in the Journal.

SENATOR BURBACH: Senator Chambers.

CLERK: (Microphone off) lottery shift faces possible challenge.

SENATOR BURBACH: The Chair recognizes Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, was that a unanimous consent request? Then I would object. I think it is setting a new precedent and a very dangerous one when we start printing newspaper articles of our like or dislike in the newspaper. Every time a Senator gets criticized, he can ask to have an editorial printed or something else. It is just out of line. I object.

SENATOR BURBACH: Senator Chambers is not in the room at the
